Guidelines on Campaigning Activities and Election-Related Matters

1. Campaign Period

- Campaigning shall be strictly limited to the official campaign period as announced by the Election Committee.
- No campaign activity shall be conducted before or after the designated period.

2. Forms of Campaign

- Campaigning may be done through posters, flyers, social media posts, and face-to-face activities, provided they remain respectful and professional.
- Posters and flyers must be placed in the following areas in the University;
 - Biometric areas in La Trinidad Campus
 - Biometric area(s) in Bokod Campus
 - Biometric area(s) in Buguias Campus

3. Conduct During Campaign

- All campaign activities must observe courtesy, professionalism, and respect among candidates, faculty members, and the University community.
- Personal attacks, defamatory remarks, and the use of offensive or discriminatory language are strictly prohibited.

4. Use of University Resources

- University resources (e.g., official stationery, email systems, facilities, or equipment) shall not be used for campaign purposes unless expressly permitted by the Election Committee.

5. Endorsements and Sponsorships

- Candidates are prohibited from soliciting financial support, gifts, or favors from outside parties or using incentives to influence votes.

6. Election Silence

- A campaign silence period of at least 24 hours before the election day shall be observed, during which no campaigning is allowed.

7. Other Election-Related Matters

- Any disputes, complaints, or concerns related to campaigning shall be formally submitted in writing to the Election Committee.
- The decision of the Election Committee on campaign-related matters shall be final and executory.
